WOMAN
FRIDAY 5 - SUNDAY 7 DECEMBER 2014
A three-day journey into Sci-Fi with film screenings, events & discussions

Discussion Event ROBOT WOMEN AND CREATED WIVES

Saturday 6 December 4pm Free event in the Sci-Fi Salon (The Lounge)

Panel chaired by Laura Adams, BFI - Author and Contributor to the BFI's current Sci-Fi programme 'Days of Fear and Wonder'

Panellists will include:

Leora Hadas, PhD Research Student in Film and Television Studies, Department of Culture, Film and Media, University of Nottingham

Christina Newland, film critic and Programmer, Watergate Cinematek

A range of contributors drawn from the arts, creative industries and academia will discuss ideas and issues raised by films in 'The Created Woman' season and within science fiction in general. The informal discussion will explore various topics including: creating the 'perfect' woman (FRANKENSTEIN CREATED WOMAN, WEIRD SCIENCE); the monstrous woman/creation gone wrong (DR JEKYLL & SISTER HYDE); robot women (METROPOLIS); wives and daughters (THE STEPFORD WIVES); conjuring the woman (SOLARIS); the 'comic' woman (WEIRD SCIENCE).
