FILM COURSES CODE OF CONDUCT

As an Educational Charity, we're delighted that you've chosen to be part of the film learning activity that's at the heart of what we do. We provide excellent, inspiring and enjoyable teaching in a safe and friendly learning environment. We want our courses to be fun, inclusive spaces for film lovers and to achieve this we expect people attending and working at them to maintain the following Code of Conduct:

- To treat all individuals with respect, consideration and tolerance.
- Not consume food in learning areas unless provided as part of the course.
- To switch off mobile phones in learning areas.
- Harassment (which means giving people unwanted attention) and bullying behaviours are unacceptable. If someone behaves inappropriately towards you or you witness something inappropriate, please report it to a member of staff or email complaints@broadway.org.uk. Your complaint will be treated with discretion.

Our Code of Conduct applies to the learning areas and all other public areas of Broadway and we reserve the right to refuse entry to anyone who does not comply with our code of conduct. Please note, Broadway takes no responsibility for behaviours on groups created on social media platforms independent of Broadway.

Enjoy your course!
